The Guaranteed

Silk Petticoat Rather than close the factory during dull season the manufacturer turns out this special make of petticoats. They are sold to the trade at a price considreably lower than petticoats of similar quality made during the factory's running season. Stores all over the country clamor for these special skirts, because they can be made a sale feature during dull sea-

Although bought in quantities, merchants pay in season more than $5.75 for this identical petticoat - hence the eagerness for a part of the dull months' output at the special price.

The line is divided between regular customers Our allotment this time is 500 skirts

Some houses put them in with the regular stock and sell them at the regular price.

We prefer to make a run on them and give the customer the extra profit

A Keith-O'Brien guarantee ticket is attached to each petticoat.

Should the silk split or crack within three months from the time of purchase, the underskirt will be replaced with a new one, providing the guarantee ticket is returned with defective skirt.

These underskirts are black, pink, light blue, white, changeable red, green, blue and various other new shades.

Made full width with a sectional flounce.
